LIFE-CHANGING MAGIC: A JOURNAL

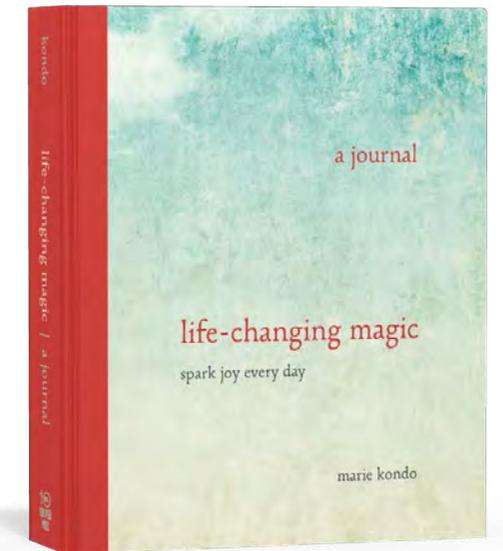

Spark Joy Every Day

MARIE KONDO

This gratitude journal from lifestyle guru Marie Kondo provides a space for you to notice and record the things that spark joy in your life each day. By asking yourself “Does this spark joy?” about not only the objects in your home but also activities and relationships, you can mindfully zero in on your ideal life. Peppered with inspirational quotes from The Life-Changing Magic of Tidying Up, this 365-day, three-year record is the perfect way to spark joy, one day at a time.

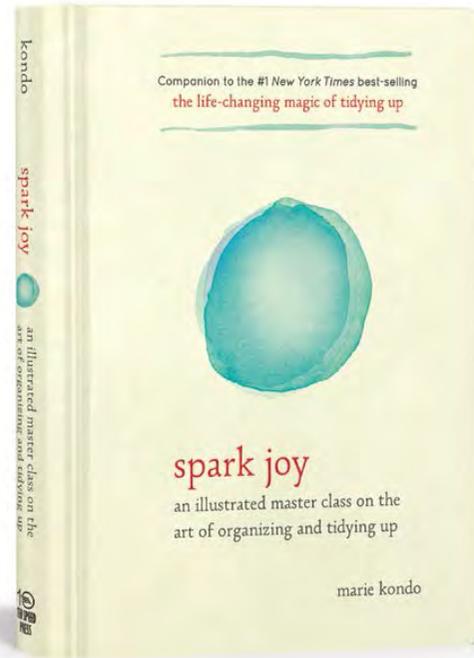

Marie Kondo is the founder of the acclaimed KonMari Method and author of the #1 New York Times bestseller, The Life-Changing Magic of Tidying Up, which has sold more than three million copies worldwide, has been translated into 35 languages, and has been turned into a Japanese television drama. Her famed Tokyo consulting business helps clients transform their cluttered homes into spaces of serenity and inspiration. Kondo has been featured in the Wall Street Journal, the Atlantic, the New York Times, USA Today, and the Today show, and has been named one of Time magazine’s 100 Most Influential People. She lives in Tokyo with her husband and daughter.

SPARK JOY

An Illustrated Master Class on the Art of Organizing and Tidying Up

MARIE KONDO

In this follow-up to The Life-Changing Magic of Tidying Up, Marie Kondo has created an in-depth, illustrated manual on how to declutter and organize specific items throughout the house to create a home—and life—that sparks joy.

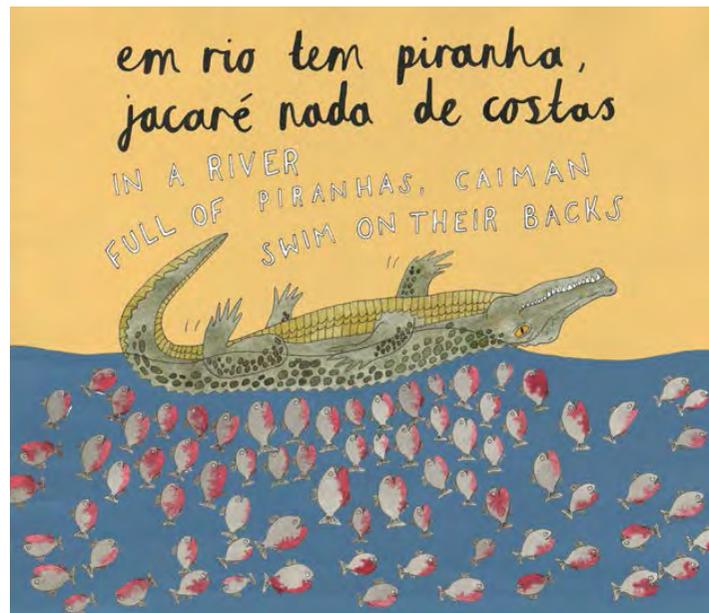

Marie Kondo's unique KonMari Method of tidying up is nothing short of life-changing. In Spark Joy, Kondo presents a fully illustrated guide to this patented method, featuring step-by-step origami-inspired folding illustrations for shirts, pants, jackets, and socks, plus line drawings of perfectly organized closets, cupboards, and drawers packed like bento boxes. For readers who need item-specific guidance, Kondo presents a tidying encyclopedia for everything from kitchen tools to bathroom items to work-related papers to hobby collections.

Kondo also provides insights to commonly asked questions, such as how to approach items that seem necessary but don't inspire joy. For parents, she addresses teaching children to fold and the age at which kids' joy sensors turn on.

Kondo then reveals the secrets to an inspired home. "A joy-filled home," she explains, "is like your own personal art museum." The changes that come when you're done—from putting relationships into focus to imbuing items with memories—create a mindset of joyful intentionality.

THE ILLUSTRATED BOOK OF SAYINGS

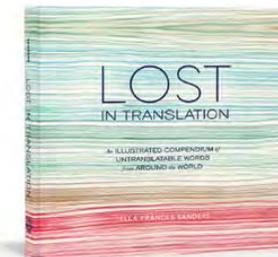

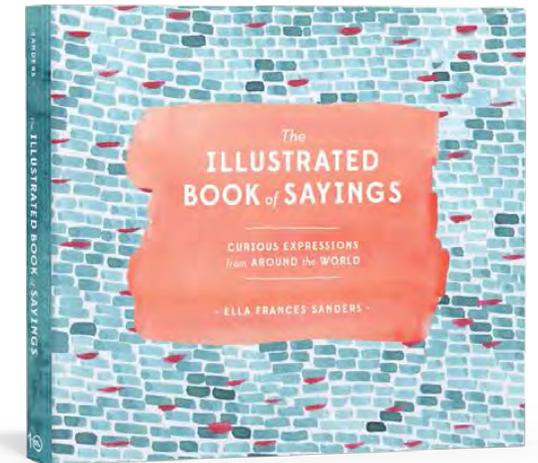

Curious Expressions from Around the World

ELLA FRANCES SANDERS

A collection of 52 artistic renderings of sayings from around the world that showcase the whimsical nature of language.

Ella Frances Sanders's first book, Lost in Translation, captured the imaginations of readers the world over with its charming illustrations of words that have no direct English translation. Now, the New York Times bestselling author is tackling the nuances of language in the form of sayings—what they are, what they mean, how they came about—from around the globe. From the French idiom, pedeler dans la choucroute (“to pedal in the sauerkraut”), which means “to spin your wheels,” to the Japanese idiom “even monkeys fall from trees” (meaning, “even experts can be wrong!”), these sayings reveal the stunning diversity, humor, and poignancy of the world’s languages and cultures.

Ella Frances Sanders is a twenty-something writer and illustrator who lives all over the place, most recently Morocco, the United Kingdom, and Switzerland.

RAD WOMEN WORLDWIDE

Artists and Athletes, Pirates and Punks, and Other Revolutionaries Who Shaped History

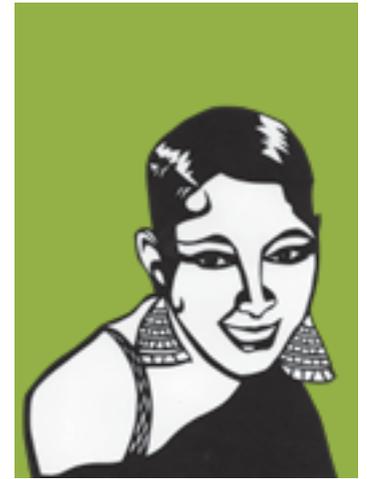

KATE SCHATZ AND MIRIAM KLEIN STAHL

From the authors of the New York Times bestselling book Rad American Women A-Z, comes a bold new collection of 40 biographical portraits showcasing extraordinary women from around the world who are pushing boundaries, changing attitudes, and reshaping the future of girls and women everywhere.

In Rad Women Worldwide, writer Kate Schatz and artist Miriam Klein Stahl tell fresh, engaging, and inspiring tales of perseverance and radical success by pairing well researched and riveting biographies with powerful and expressive cut-paper portraits. Featuring an array of diverse figures from Hatshepsut (the great female king who ruled Egypt peacefully for two decades) and Malala Yousafzi (the youngest person to win the Nobel Peace Prize) to Poly Styrene (legendary teenage punk and lead singer of X-Ray Spex) and Liv Arnesen and Ann Bancroft (polar explorers and the first women to cross Antarctica), this progressive and visually arresting book is a compelling addition to women's history.

Kate Schatz is a feminist writer, educator, editor, and the author of the 3 $\frac{1}{3}$ book Rid of Me: A Story. Miriam Klein Stahl is an artist, educator, and activist. They are the author and illustrator, respectively, of Rad American Women A-Z and both live in the San Francisco Bay Area.

AMARO

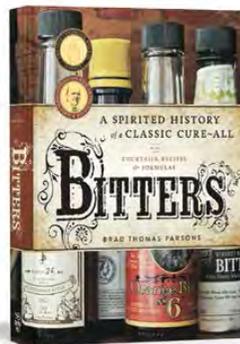

The Spirited World of Bittersweet, Herbal Liqueurs, with Cocktails, Recipes, and Formulas

BRAD THOMAS PARSONS

An exploration of the world of bittersweet liqueurs—ranging from familiar favorites like Averna and Fernet-Branca, to more obscure potables such as Zucca and Bràulio—featuring more than 70 amaro-centric cocktail recipes.

Brad Thomas Parsons always has his finger on the pulse of what's new and exciting in the cocktail world, even if what's new is old. The European tradition of making bitter cordials and liqueurs has been around for centuries—and comes to life in this beautifully packaged guide. Parsons takes readers on a breathtaking tour of the Italian countryside, then to the United States where contemporary mixologists are incorporating amaro into a delicious array of cocktails. Gorgeous location and cocktail photography plus more than 100 recipes for DIY amaro, amaro cocktails, and amaro-spiked desserts will make this the must-have beverage book of the season.

Brad Thomas Parsons is the author of the James Beard and IACP Award-winning book Bitters, which was also a finalist for the Tales of the Cocktail Spirited Awards. Parsons received an MFA in writing from Columbia University, and his work has appeared in Bon Appétit, Food & Wine, Travel + Leisure, Lucky Peach, and others. He lives in Brooklyn.

A PROPER DRINK

The Untold Story of How a Band of Bartenders Saved the Civilized Drinking World

ROBERT SIMONSON

As cocktail and spirits writer for the New York Times, Robert Simonson has been reporting from the front lines of the craft cocktail revolution for years. In A Proper Drink, Simonson distills years' worth of interviews—with luminaries including Dale DeGroff, Audrey Saunders, Danny Meyer, Grant Achatz, and more—to tell, for the first time ever, the full, unflinching story of the craft cocktail revival. Filled with hilarious (and often tipsy) characters, game-changing bars and restaurants, and a curated list of the 40 most important cocktails to emerge from the movement, A Proper Drink is a landmark publication in the cocktail category.

SOUTHERN SPIRITS

Four Hundred Years of Drinking in the American South, with Recipes

ROBERT F. MOSS

A captivating narrative and the first book to tell the full story of Southern drinking culture, Southern Spirits explores how liquor, beer, and wine are deeply intertwined with the history of the region. Starting with the colonists who first found themselves stranded in a new world without their native beer, Southern Spirits follows the story to the modern day, when classic spirits and cocktails of the pre-Prohibition South are back in vogue. This book challenges the stereotypes of Southern drinking culture, revealing how the region's fascinating boozy history has shaped America as a whole.

FAR AFIELD

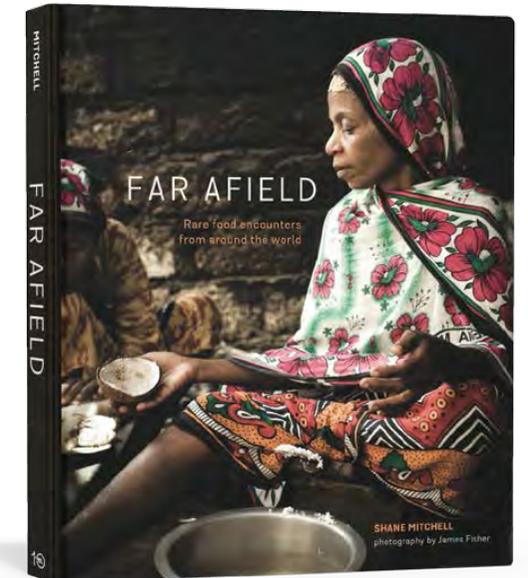

Rare Food Encounters from Around the World

SHANE MITCHELL

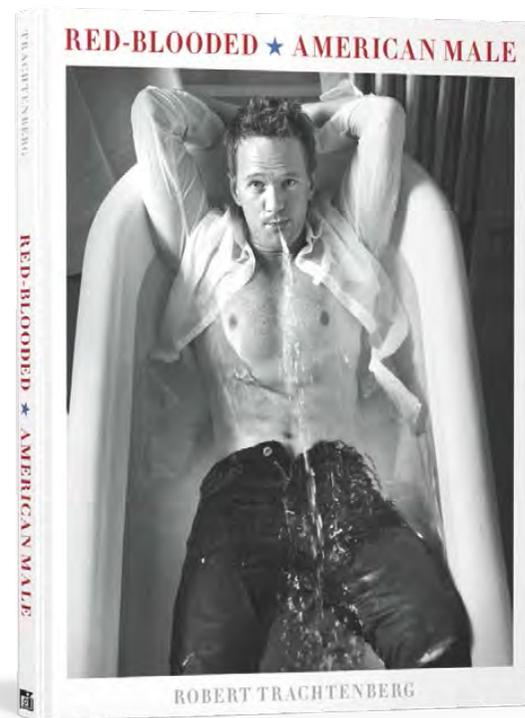

A culinary travel book featuring fascinating profiles and photographs of the stewards of the world's oldest foodways, along with recipes.

Journalist Shane Mitchell has traveled the world on assignment for food and travel publications such as Travel + Leisure and Saveur. Along the way, she has encountered the dedicated people who continue to keep the world's traditional foodways alive, such as sacred taro farmers in Hawaii who have never left the islands, fishermen on the Swahili coast, and Icelandic shepherds who utilize the techniques of their Viking ancestors. Full of lush photography from far-flung locations all over the globe by James Fischer, who traveled on assignment with Mitchell, Far Afield captures these people and their food traditions, sharing stories and recipes otherwise largely unknown.

Shane Mitchell is a contributing editor for Saveur and was formerly a special correspondent for Travel + Leisure. Her writing has also appeared in Australian Gourmet Traveller, Afar, Bon Appétit, Departures, and Bitter Southerner, among other publications. In 2010, she was awarded the IACP Bert Greene Culinary Writing prize. When not on the road, she lives in upstate New York's Mohawk Valley.

RED-BLOODED AMERICAN MALE

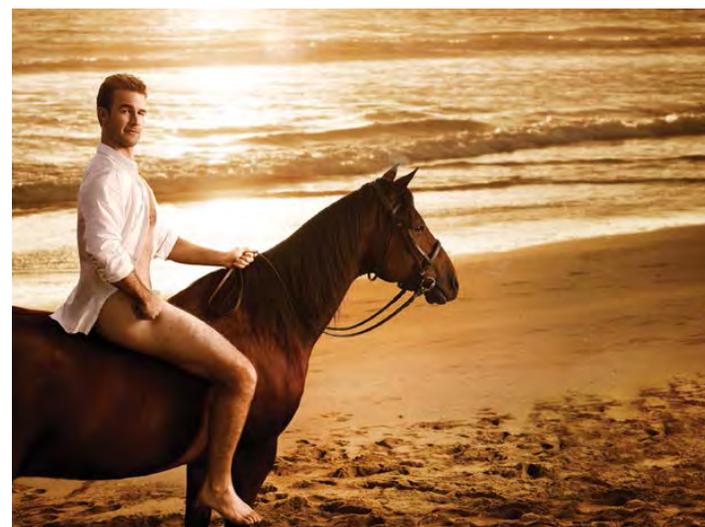

A Singular Take on Male Portraiture

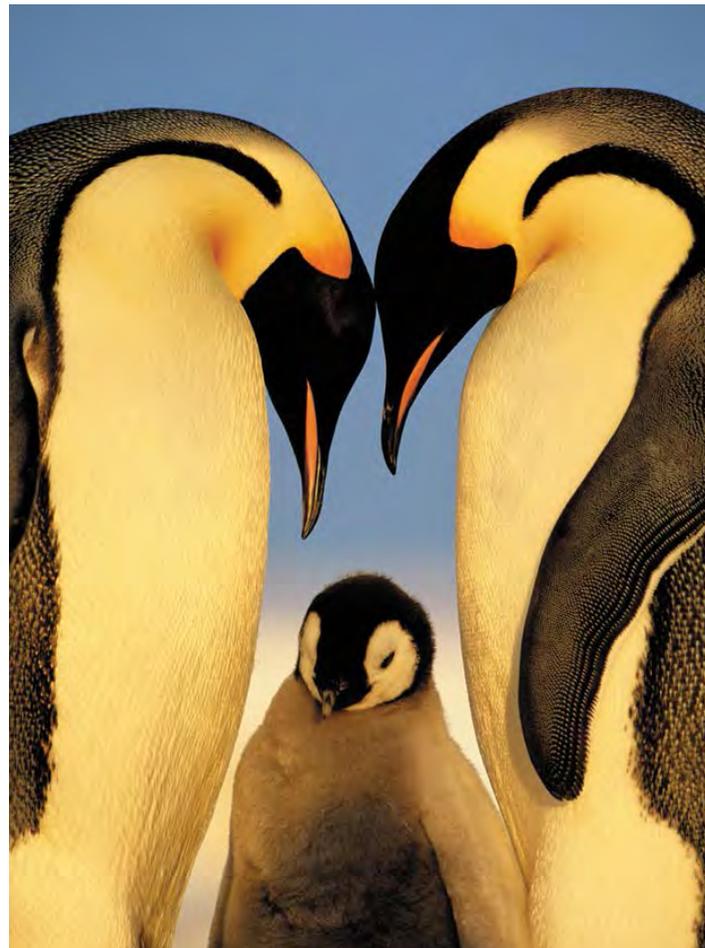

ROBERT TRACHTENBERG

From award-winning photographer Robert Trachtenberg comes a playful coffee table book presenting a modern take on male portraiture, with stunning (and cheeky) photographs that subtly open up a provocative conversation about today's modern masculinity.

James Van Der Beek in a state of undress; Neil Patrick Harris taking a bath; Channing Tatum and friends bromancing in the park. These are the portraits of today's tongue-in-cheek masculinity, as conceived by photographer Robert Trachtenberg. Here he presents 100 of his most imaginative, striking, and unconventionally sexy portraits, revealing a surprising (and often self-deprecating) side to modern celebrities and everymen alike. This gorgeous book features an introduction about male images and stereotypes, plus pithy captions about each photo's shoot, giving readers a peek behind the curtain of a famed portrait photographer's creative process.

Robert Trachtenberg's photographs have appeared in the New York Times Magazine, Esquire, Vanity Fair, GQ, People, Entertainment Weekly, and Rolling Stone. Trachtenberg has written, produced, and directed several documentaries, including Mel Brooks: Make a Noise, for which he won an Emmy Award. He is also the author of the book, When I Knew. He lives in Los Angeles.

FORAGED FLORA

Found and Foraged Arrangements for Every Season

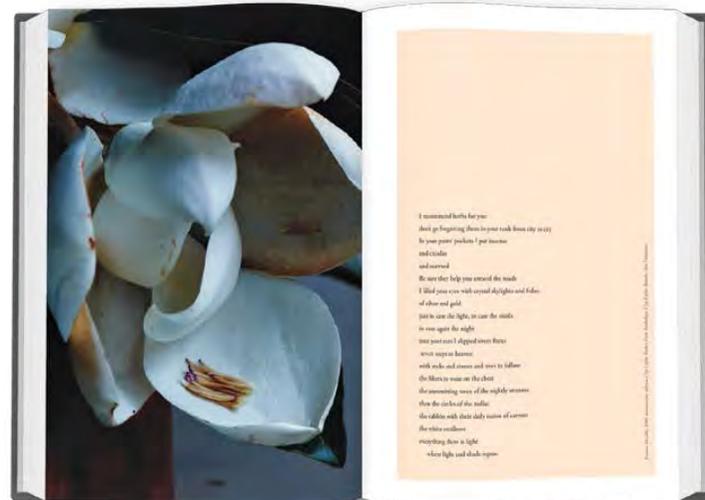

LOUESA ROEBUCK AND SARAH LONSDALE

A new look at flower arranging, taking inspiration from wild and foraged plants at every stage of their lifespan and through each season. Abundantly photographed, this coffee-table worthy celebration of flowers features tips on creating naturalistic arrangements and essays on edible and medicinal plants.

With the expert eye of two veteran designers, learn how to create amazing arrangements, both big and small, with the plants, branches, and flowers found in nature, or even in your backyard. With loose, organic compositions that celebrate the beauty in imperfection, Foraged Flora reflects a fresh direction in flower arrangements and shows us, through abundant and lush photography, how stunning the natural world can be. Tips on using color to greatest effect, information on plant types, and essays on our connection to nature round out this thoroughly modern approach to an ancient art.

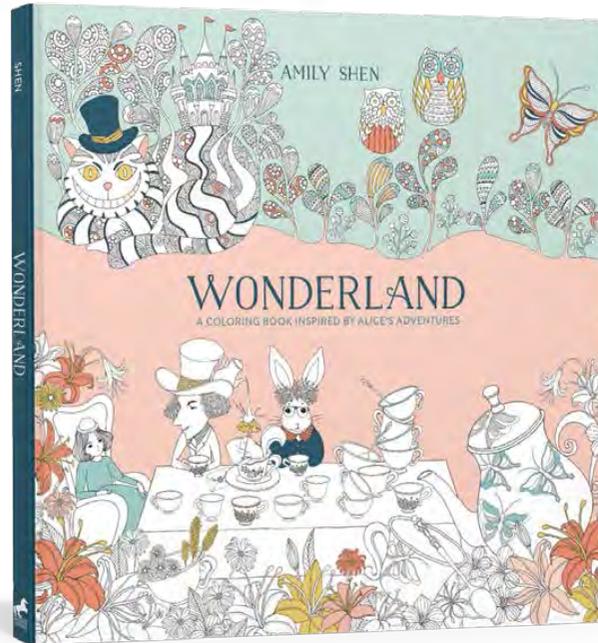

Louesa Roebuck is an artist and floral designer who divides her time between the San Francisco Bay Area and Los Angeles.

Sarah Lonsdale is the co-founder of Remodelista and currently serves as Remodelista's editor-at-large. She lives in California's Napa Valley.

PENGUINS AND OTHER SEABIRDS

MATT SEWELL

An enchanting illustrated guide to penguins and seabirds around the world.

In this beautiful and highly giftable art book, artist and ornithologist Matt Sewell captures 50 species of the world's most beloved bird—the penguin—and other seabird favorites like puffins and albatrosses. Using pop-art watercolors and whimsical profiles of each species, Sewell expresses the individual characters of seabirds as never before. From the Little Penguin, who is only 13 inches tall, to the Fiordland Crested Penguin, who sports bushy yellow eyebrows, these charismatic birds are sure to delight both young and old.

MATT SEWELL is an avid ornithologist, regular contributor to the Caught by the River website, and the author of several other illustrated bird books including Owls: Our Most Charming Bird. His work has been exhibited in London, Manchester, New York, Tokyo, and Paris. He lives in Shrewsbury, UK.

YOU'RE SAYING IT WRONG

A Pronunciation Guide to the 150 Most Commonly Mispronounced Words and Their Tangled Histories of Misuse

ROSS PETRAS AND KATHRYN PETRAS

Explore English's most commonly mispronounced words—and make sure you're saying them right—in this gifty little etymology guide. Entries reveal how to pronounce boatswain like an old salt on the deck of a ship, trompe l'oeil like a bona fide art expert, and haricot vert like a foodie, while arming you with the knowledge of why certain words are correctly pronounced the “slangy” way. With sidebars like “How to Sound like a Seasoned Traveler” and “How to Sound Cultured,” you'll sound smarter than ever.
