HANNAH ARENDT

EICHMANN IN JERUSALEM

A Report on the Banality of Evil

Introduction by Amos Elon

Arendt's report on the trial of Nazi leader Adolf Eichmann includes further material that came to light after the trial, as well as Arendt's postscript directly addressing the controversy that arose over her account. "A profound and documented analysis....Bound to stir our minds and trouble our consciences."—Chicago Tribune.

Penguin Classics • 336 pp. • 978-0-14-303988-4 • $16.00

EICHMANN AND THE HOLOCAUST

Great Ideas Series

Inspired by the trial of a bureaucrat who helped cause the Holocaust, this radical work on the banality of evil stunned the world with its exploration of a regime's moral blindness and one man's insistence that he be absolved of all guilt because he was "only following orders."

Penguin • 144 pp. • 978-0-14-303760-6 • $10.95

BETWEEN PAST AND FUTURE

Eight Exercises in Political Thought

Introduction by Jerome Kohn

Arendt's penetrating observations of the modern world, based on a profound knowledge of the past, constitute a major contribution to political philosophy. In this book she describes the perplexing crises which modern society faces as a result of the loss of meaning of the traditional key words of politics: justice, reason, responsibility, virtue, and glory.

RICHARD J. EVANS

"Evans published the first volume of his trilogy in 2003. Five years and some 2,400 printed pages later, The Third Reich at War brings it to a triumphant completion. This is both a masterful historical narrative and the most comprehensive account of Nazi Germany, which will rank alongside Ian Kershaw's Hitler as the first port of call for scholars and general readers alike. It is hard to do justice to the humanity and scholarly range of The Third Reich at War."—The Times Literary Supplement.

◀ THE THIRD REICH AT WAR

The final volume in Evans's masterly trilogy traces the rise and fall of German military might, the mobilization of a "people's community" to serve a war of conquest, and Hitler's campaign of racial subjugation and genocide. "A masterpiece of historical scholarship...the best and most up-to-date synthesis of the huge work carried out on the subject over the past decades."—The Times (London). "This is history in the grand style.... It is difficult to imagine how it could be improved upon, let alone surpassed."—The Washington Post.

Penguin Press • 912 pp. • 978-1-59420-206-3 • $40.00

THE COMING OF THE THIRD REICH

◀ Tony Judt REAPPRAISALS

Reflections on the Forgotten Twentieth Century

Drawing provocative connections between a range of subjects, from Jewish intellectuals and the challenge of evil in the recent European past to the interpretation of the Cold War, Judt shows how our history has been sacrificed in the triumph of myth-making over understanding. "Perhaps the greatest single collection of thinking on the political, diplomatic, social, and cultural history of the past century."—Forbes.

Penguin • 464 pp. • 978-0-14-102636-7 • $18.00

Also available: Postwar 978-0-14-303775-0

ARTHUR MILLER

ALL MY SONS

Introduction by Christopher Bigsby

Miller's first major play, winner of the Drama Critics' Award for Best New Play in 1947, established Miller as a leading voice in the American theater and introduced themes that would thread through Miller's work as a whole: the relationships between fathers and sons and the conflict between business and personal ethics.

THE TRUE STORY OF
HANSEL AND GRETEL

Combining classic themes of fairy tales and war literature, this novel of journey and survival, of redemption and memory, powerfully depicts how war is experienced by families and especially by children. "No reader who picks up this inspiring novel will put it down until the final pages, in which redemption is not a fairy tale ending but a heartening message of hope."—Publishers Weekly.

Join the PENGUIN GROUP (USA) College Faculty Information Service

Penguin Group (USA) offers course adoption assistance as near as your phone or computer. Over the past few years, the College Faculty Information Service has grown to cover a wide range of fine titles from all Penguin Group (USA) imprints in a continuing effort to offer personalized service to college professors and enhance information provided by our college reps in the field.

HOW THE SERVICE WORKS

Any assistant, associate, adjunct, or full professor who teaches in the United States and regularly adopts paperbacks is invited to join the Penguin Group (USA) College Faculty Information Service. Simply complete and return the questionnaire on the next page, and we'll send you catalogs relevant to your courses and ordering information. Thereafter, you can contact us anytime to discuss appropriate titles and free exam copy choices.

HOW THE PROGRAM WILL HELP YOU

Through CFIS, you'll receive information on new and forthcoming books of interest to you and free exam copies for possible course adoption. Our representative will be glad to review Penguin Group (USA)'s extensive backlist—an invaluable aid in developing new courses, and answer any questions about our titles that you may have. We're available to discuss not only current titles but your ideas on books that you'd like to see Penguin publish. We value your suggestions—they assist us in acquiring books that are most relevant to you as educators.

INTERESTED?

Look through this catalog and note the outstanding books and low prices that have made Penguin Group (USA) the first choice of educators. Then fill out the questionnaire and send it to us.

The questionnaire is also available on our website:

<http://us.penguin.com/academic>

It's the first step to a collaborative process a collaborative process that will help you select the best books (at the best prices) for your courses.
